Second Sunday of Advent—December 10, 2017

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

*As a parish community united in Jesus and dedicated to Mary,
We are called to discipleship through worship and service.*

Second Sunday of Advent, December 10, 2017

As we continue with this Advent Season, let us prepare our hearts for the birth of Jesus. We wait in joyful anticipation for His coming. We know an outstanding asset of the Assumption BVM Parish is our friendly and welcoming spirit. It is so important that as a family, we talk to one another before and after Mass. But, we must also wait in prayerful silence, read the Bible, and communicate with the Lord. What better place to do this than in church!

As the church is a sacred space, and we need to be sensitive to our family members who want prayerful silence before Mass, a "lounge" has been created outside the vestibule with some comfortable chairs, near the nursery. The Parish Staff's desire is to accommodate all of our parishioners. We need a balance.

Peace and Love,
Father Mike

Additional Weekly Confession Opportunities

Based on consensus from you who had indicated your preference about the best additional times for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, 7:30 AM and 10:30 AM on Sundays have won out! The new times will be effective today, Please know the time limit is 20 minutes, so that the priest can prepare to begin the 8 and 10 AM Masses on time.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

As we try to spend more time in prayer in preparation for Christmas, seriously consider spending some time at Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Tuesdays from 9 AM to 6:45 PM. The day of Adoration concludes with Evening Prayer and Benediction at 6:45 PM.

Advent Reconciliation Services

Along with our regular weekly Confession schedule, the Assumption BVM Church's Advent Reconciliation Service will take place on Saturday, December 16th from 10 to 11:30 AM.

Three Tips to Discovering Joy During Advent: Lessons from Pope Francis on Joy-filled Living

1. Pray (Always the first answer!)
Ask God for the particular grace to receive His gift of joy more actively and consciously.
2. Immerse yourself in good examples.
Ask advice from, and surround yourself with, people who are visibly living in a true spirit of joy.
3. Make small acts of love.
