PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

*As a parish community united in Jesus and dedicated to Mary,
We are called to discipleship through worship and service.*

Fourth Sunday of Easter—April 22, 2018
A Message from Deacon Bob

Have you heard about the day Frog lost its tail?

Once upon a time, when God created all the animals, Frog was the only one without a tail. The other animals made fun of the tailless Frog, making Frog feel inferior and ugly.

So Frog begged God for a tail. God listened to Frog’s plea and agreed to give Frog a tail with one condition—that Frog would watch over God’s special pond. Frog happily agreed.

Soon a terrible draught seized the area and God’s special pond was the only watering hole for many miles. Creatures from all over the wood came to Frog’s new home in need of water. But Frog was very full of himself with his new long tail and his powerful position as keeper of the land’s only watering hole. Frog’s sense of self-importance and entitlement had mushroomed. And since he had never forgotten how the other creatures used to tease him, Frog did not hesitate to turn away every animal from the pond without so much as a sip.

Soon word of Frog’s antics reached God, who decided to see for himself. As God approached the water’s edge, he heard Frog shout, “Whoever you are, move along! This water is not for you! God gave me this beautiful pond to do with as I see fit—because I am the most beautiful of all creatures!”

When Frog realized it was God coming to the pond, it was too late. God exiled Frog from the pond and took away his tail. Now, each spring, every frog is born a tadpole with a long tail—but as these children of Frog grow, the tail shrinks until it disappears as a lesson in humility and selflessness.

The Gospel of the Good Shepherd is a lesson in leadership—leadership that is centered in humble service to others. Christ calls each one of us to realize that the gifts, talents and abilities we have received has been entrusted to us, not for our own profit or honor, but to fulfill our vocations as “good shepherds.” We have been called to seek out and bring back the lost, the scattered and forgotten; to enable people to move beyond their fears and doubts and realize their own gifts and talents; to bring the peace and justice of God into our relationships and communities. To embrace the model of the Good Shepherd is to realize that every person of the “one fold” possesses the sacred dignity of being children of God and to rejoice in knowing that in serving others we serve God.

Deacon Bob

Family Promise of Lower Bucks

Just as spring is a time for rebirth, Family Promise of Lower Bucks (a non-profit 501©3 is closer to once again fulfilling its mission of bringing the local faith-based community together to assist homeless families with children to regain their housing and their independence.

At a recent "town hall" meeting, it was announced that funding has been stabilized and candidates for Executive Director are being interviewed. The final area of need is volunteers.

Before FPLB went on hiatus in 2017, many Assumption parishioners had expressed support for us becoming a "host congregation." As such, we would provide the children and their families (up to 14 people) overnight lodging and meals for one week several times during the summer months when the ABVM school building is not being used.

Although God's timing for this project was not the same as ours, we hope to re-energize our parish to move forward. As we begin the next part of this journey, please visit www.fplb.org for information (including links to getting free volunteer clearances) and check the bulletin and Facebook for additional details.

We have scheduled a FPLB volunteer training session at ABVM on Sunday, May 6th at 2 PM in the school. More details will be shared when they become available. All are welcome.
