We are called to discipleship through worship and service.*

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time—October 21, 2018 From Deacon Eric's Desk

I've been thinking a lot about St. Michael lately. Part of the reason isn't religious, but has to do with what was going on in the world exactly 100 years ago. From September to November 1918 the last decisive battles of the First World War were being fought in France, spearheaded by the "doughboys" of the American Expeditionary Forces. My grandfather was one of those doughboys. Perhaps you're grandfather was too. The more I learn about these brave men and their heroic deeds "over there," the more I'm convinced we should never forget them.

One of the last battles of the war (and the first led solely by the United States) was the St. Mihiel offensive in September 1918. It took place near the village of St. Mihiel which (legend has it) takes its name from St. Michael the Archangel (who intervened to save it from destruction by flood). During the Battle of St. Mihiel, the American Infantry, through detailed planning and sheer grit, succeeded in penetrating the German defenses. I suspect many an American Catholic soldier offered up a prayer to St. Michael during those days, praying, "Defend us in battle" as they commenced the attack.

The other reason I've got St. Michael on my mind should be obvious if you've been to Church these past few weeks. As you know, the old tradition of reciting the Prayer to St. Michael at the end of Mass is returning. It's being done locally at the request of Archbishop Chaput who, in a letter to the faithful of the archdiocese last month, asked them to pray to St. Michael for help with three things: 1) the healing of abuse survivors; 2) in reparation for the sins of sexual abuse; and 3) the protection of our local church. Good and noble intentions all.

Perhaps Pope Leo XIII foresaw the sexual abuse scandals of the 21st century in his troubling mystical vision of 1884. But he undoubtedly saw more momentous and disturbing things even closer on the horizon: two world wars; revolutions of all sorts; the rise of the "Culture of Death"; spiritual battles raging the world over. So Pope Leo penned the Prayer to St. Michael to strike a preemptive blow against the attacks to come. And he was wise to do so.

What wasn't so wise was the decision to stop praying that prayer 50-some years ago. Why? Because the battle wasn't over. And it won't be over until the adversary—Satan—is defeated. Satan—who never gives up; whose malice toward humanity is unequalled; and whose minions prowl the world seeking the ruin of souls—yours and mine.

So I've got St. Michael on my mind. He's a powerful intercessor, whom the Church now commends to us in our time of need. He flew to the defense of those villagers when flood waters threatened so long ago. I'd like to think he answered the call of those doughboys on the fields of France during those final months of the First World War. Let us pray now that he flies to our defense, to help us weather the scandals and perils of today—both in the Church and our own individual lives. St. Michael the Archangel—defend us in battle! Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil".

Congratulations

We ask that you please look around your house for a baby bottle from the "Chance for Life Baby Bottle Project." We are still missing close to 150 bottles. We would be extremely grateful for any returns so we do not have to purchase more next year. You can leave the bottles in the back of the church or drop them off at the rectory. No donations are necessary, simply returning any empty bottles would be an enormous help. Thank you and God bless.

YOUTH AND COMMUNITY NEWS

Saint Katharine Drexel Catholic School News The Principal's Corner

I am proud and honored to be a part of our mission in forming our children as persons of kindness, compassion, and generosity. Each month our students focus on a service project within their own classroom and as a school community. Listed below are acts of Christian Service that have taken place in our school last month and will continue in the months ahead.

- Our Pre K students along with their 8th grade prayer buddies participated in Operation Gratitude by creating Care Packages for our servicemen and women.
- Our Kindergarten Students donated canned goods to the Food Pantry in honor of St. Vincent de Paul's Feast Day.
- Our 1st grade students and their 5th grade prayer partners are working together. Students will be donating a book of their choice to another fifth grade student at an inner city school. First grade students will be making book marks to go along with these special books.
- Our 2nd graders are writing cards and collecting items to thank the veterans for serving our country.
- Our 3rd graders and their prayer partners in 7th grade are collecting Coupons for the Troops!
- Our 4th graders are hosting a coat and hat drive for those in need.
- Our 6th grade students are sponsoring a classmate for when he walks for the "Out of the Darkness" walk-a-thon. It is a foundation that provides counseling for teen suicide.
- Mrs. Kane is leading our entire school community in supporting Breast Cancer Awareness month and raising money for the Unite for Her Fundraiser. Students are selling Pink Ribbon Pins, Pink Lemonade, and we will host a "Pink Out" Day on October 19th.

I thank you, our parishioners, for your commitment to our school and its mission! Let us make a special effort to be more aware of God's presence in our daily lives and pray for the grace to follow Him more closely. As we journey together, let us continue to pray for one another.

This year, we would once again like to provide the children with a special Christmas. During the month of October, a donation box marked Christmas Gift Fund, will be in the vestibule of church. If you choose to donate, please place your donations in this designated box (not the collection basket) If paying by check, please make it payable to Assumption BVM and place it in an envelope marked Christmas Gift Fund and your Name. Assumption will process your donation and in November forward the total amount collected to the Holy Spirit Sisters.
